CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Good morning. This is Chairman Reynolds. The meeting will come to order.

This is a meeting of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.

It is -- we are late. It is 9:42 a.m., Eastern Standard Time on February 20, 2009.

The meeting is being held at 624 Ninth Street, N.W., Room 540, Washington, D.C., though the majority of Commissioners are participating by phone.

I will, once again, call each Commissioner in order to determine if there is a quorum, just to make it official.

Vice Chair Thernstrom?

VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I'm present.

CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano?

COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Present.

COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Here.

COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Here.

COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Here.

CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki?

1 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Virtually present.

2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Taylor?

3 (No response.)

4 Okay. Is the Staff Director present?

5 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Present.

6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Can the Court Reporter
7 hear everyone?

8 (No response.)

9 Please have the Court Reporter confirm
10 that he or she can hear everyone?

11 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Can you hear
12 me now? Okay.

13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. If a
14 Commissioner is participating by phone and wants to 15 make a statement, please identify yourself first. And 16 whenever it is necessary to take a vote, I ask that 17 you provide your name and indicate how you vote.

18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Commissioner Reynolds,
19 this is Commissioner Yaki.

20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki, you
21 have a --

22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Point of order.

23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes.

24 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I just heard the first
25 Blackberry on the line, so I would ask that the people

1 in the room make sure that their Blackberrys and cell
2 phones are away from their mics, because since the 3 majority of us are on the phone it will -- it will
4 impact us the most. Like there.

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, folks. Let's
6 move our Blackberrys and Treos away from the phone.

7 Okay. Let's start with the two known
8 amendments to the agenda.

9 I. APPROVAL OF AGENDA

10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The first is I move to 11 table the discussion of the findings of fact and 12 recommendations for the briefing report on the 13 Department of Justice's enforcement of voting rights
14 in the 2008 presidential election. Is there a second?

15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Second.

16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion?

17 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I wish you had told
18 me that last night.

19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry?

20 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I wish you had told
21 me that last night.

22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, I wasn't aware
23 that -- well, the rationale for this is that recently,
24 as in yesterday, I discovered that we may have -- the 25 changes to the document may not be in accordance with

NEAL R. GROSS

1 the understanding at the last meeting.

2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That would be true.

3 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: That would be true,
4 but some of us were working --

5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes. We have been
6 working to try to make them better.

7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: There is no cause
8 to postponing it. Let us just move on. We don't need
9 to have a big discussion of that.

10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry, Abby.

11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I'm sorry. This
12 is Commissioner -- this is Vice Chair Thernstrom.
13 There is no cause to moving on. Let's just agree --
14 agree to the postponement and move on. We can have it
15 -- we don't need a big discussion.

16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. All in favor?
17 Vice Chair Thernstrom, how do you vote?

18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes.

20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Pass.

21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry?

22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Can I pass?

23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: So you -- that's the 24 equivalent of an abstention?

25 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: No. I want to see

1 if I can vote -- oh, okay. I'll -- can you return to 2 me?

3 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Yes, okay. I
4 understand now.

5 Commissioner Kirsanow?

6 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes.

7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot?

8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes.

10 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Yes.

11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki?

12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Pass.

13 (Laughter.)

14 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: This isn't poker.

15 (Laughter.)

16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Let's go back to 17 Commissioner Gaziano.

18 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes.

19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. And, finally,
20 Commissioner Yaki?

21 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes.

22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. The motion
23 passes.

24 The second amendment to the agenda is to 25 add the rechartering of the Mississippi SAC. Is there

14 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Abstain.

16 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Abstain.

17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. And I vote in 18 the affirmative. The motion passes.

19 So I move to approve the agenda as 20 amended. Is there a second?

21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Second.

22 Thernstrom. Second.

4 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes.

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And I vote in the 6 affirmative.

7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Actually, could I
8 just amend that? I don't -- let me vote no. I should 9 have raised some specific adjustments to it, but I
10 don't think that is necessary. I just don't agree
11 exactly how it was worded.

12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. So please make 13 sure that the record reflects that Commissioner
14 Gaziano voted no.

15 Okay. Next up, we have Announcements.

16 III. ANNOUNCEMENTS

17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: For the month of 18 February, February is Black History Month, in which we 19 honor the accomplishments of black Americans from all
20 walks of life and recognize their extraordinary
21 contributions to the nation's history. These include
22 writers such as Dubois, Baldwin, and Ellison, to name
23 a few; musicians like Mahalia Jackson, Billie Holiday,
24 Duke Ellington, and Billy Strayhorn; and civil rights
25 leaders such as Ella Baker, Robert Moses, and Dr.

1 Martin Luther King.

2 We also take special note for those black
3 Americans, past and present, who have served or 4 currently serve in public office, including our new 5 President, Barack Obama. In recognition of these 6 achievements, I hope that public officials, educators,
7 librarians, and people throughout the United States
8 will observe this month by highlighting and honoring 9 the contributions made by black Americans to our 10 nation.

11 Next up --

12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Commissioner -- Chair
13 Reynolds, this is Commissioner Yaki.

15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Just -- Chair
16 Reynolds, I just wanted to say on the record that the 17 irony of celebrating Black History Month in lieu of 18 the at best insensitive, at worst potentially racist
19 cartoon in The New Yorker, is something that I just 20 wanted to register my personal objection to.

21 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: New Yorker? Which
22 cartoon? Are you talking about the one in The New 23 York Post?

24 COMMISSIONER YAKI: New York Post, that's 25 right.

1 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Oh, okay.

2 COMMISSIONER YAKI: A cartoon regarding
3 the -- their so-called parody of the stimulus bill.
4 And I just wanted to state for the record my extreme
5 discomfort with that image.

6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.

7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: This is Thernstrom
8 here. Commissioner Yaki, I have not seen it, and I
9 would very much like it if you could forward it to me.

10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I will.

11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Thank you.

12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Any other comments?

13 (No response.)

14 Okay. The next item is the submission of 15 the fiscal year 2010 request for congressional 16 appropriations.

17 V. MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONS

18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: This request for
19 appropriations, which first must be cleared by OMB,
20 supports the Commission's baseline operations for 21 2010, the addition of critical staff, and a few 22 enhanced activities related to its five-year strategic 23 plan goals.

24 Their proposed request, which was
25 distributed to Commissioners earlier this week via

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 e-mail, is a $600,000 increase over our 2009 request,
2 and it is $1 million more than our '09 appropriated
3 level.

4 At the request of various Commissioners, I
5 approached the Staff Director and notified him of my 6 intention to make a motion at this meeting to lift the 7 moratorium, so that we can hire three Commissioner
8 special assistants.

9 Because three special assistants were not 10 contemplated in the budget distributed to 11 Commissioners earlier this week, I asked the Staff
12 Director to consider adjustments to the budget at 13 various spending categories that would allow for such 14 hiring, and I asked that he come prepared to discuss 15 the adjustments today.

16 My desire is for an amended budget that 17 will allow us to incrementally move toward a full
18 complement of special assistants, but also allow for a
19 number of other critical staff hires.

20 With that, I turn the discussion over to 21 the Staff Director.

22 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Thank you,
23 Mr. Chairman. The cost, in terms of salaries and 24 benefits, for FY2010 for three Commissioner's
25 Assistants is $335,370. We discovered that the

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 document that we based the rent projection on was the
2 wrong document, and came across the correct document
3 for what the actual rent is going to be in FY2010.
4 And there is -- actually, the rent is going to be 5 $150,404 less. So that was the starting point was 6 that $150,000.

7 We also removed the position -- funding
8 for the position of the Budget Assistant, reduced
9 travel by $25,000, postponed the public service
10 announcement in the amount of $35,000, reduced the 11 secretarial support in the Southern Regional Office to 12 about $10,000, and reduced external accounting by 13 about $48,000.

14 We have some optional services under 15 external accounting that we believe we can do without,
16 particularly since we are anticipating in the budget
17 the hiring of a Budget Chief. So we believe that the 18 Budget Chief will be able to handle what we would have 19 otherwise paid for through those optional services.
20 And that -- those items added up to the $335,370.

21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Mr. Staff
22 Director, this is Vice Chair Thernstrom. When is the 23 budget submission due?

24 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: The date to 25 OMB was actually yesterday, but they did give us an

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 extension. They are going to allow us to submit it on 2 Monday.

3 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay. So that
4 means we have got to have a vote today on this budget,
5 is that correct?

6 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Yes.

7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman, this
8 is Commissioner Gaziano. I think it is very helpful
9 that the Staff Director has done this analysis on the 10 assumption that we will vote for a $9.4 million
11 request. But could we begin with that perhaps, and 12 just discuss whether that is really -- if there is a
13 consensus that that is really the figure we should ask
14 for? I wonder whether we should ask for a little bit
15 more, or maybe a lot bit more. But I will defer to 16 you, if you want to cover the discussion in another
17 way.

18 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Well, let me
19 just address that. This is the Staff Director. There
20 was a -- what's called a passback from OMB. We did
21 submit a budget request initially for about
22 $12.4 million, and on January 30th we got our passback
23 from OMB, and we had a very short turnaround time -- I
24 think about a week -- that we -- if we wanted to 25 appeal that number -- in which to appeal it. And

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 also, with the understanding that our budget
2 submission itself would be due on January 19th.

3 We decided that, given that this was an 4 increase, significant -- not nearly as much as we 5 would like to see, but a significant increase compared 6 to the amounts that we had seen before, and given what
7 we anticipated would be the budget situation, that it
8 would be very difficult to prevail with that type of 9 appeal, we decided to forego the appeal and to just 10 focus our attention on preparing the --

11 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Which --

12 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: -- $9.4
13 million budget.

14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Which -- did you
15 circulate it to Commissioners and I just missed it?
16 About not appealing?

17 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: I consulted
18 with the Chairman about it.

19 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. For the 20 record -- and if there is a majority of other
21 Commissioners who are satisfied with $9.4 million,
22 that's fine. But for the record, as I maintained last
23 year, we are not required by statute -- and I am aware
24 of no regulation that binds Commissioners, or statute,
25 to accept this OMB passback.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1           We are an independent agency, and I
2 understand why certainly a number of Commissioners
3 wanted to follow OMB's figures in the past. But I at 4 least want it to be clear in the record that we are 5 not required to do so. So regardless of the -- 6 whether we should have pursued an appeal before now or 7 after, we are I certainly think certainly not bound by 8 that $9.4 million figure. We can, it seems to me,
9 require OMB to pass on a higher amount to Congress.

10           STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Well, we did
11 have a discussion about that point last year, and the 12 General Counsel prepared a memo explaining the legal 13 background and the practice of the Commission over the 14 years with respect to that issue.

15           COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Let's review that,
16 then, and maybe we could ask the General Counsel, what 17 statute prohibits us? Is there any statute that 18 prohibits us from exceeding the passback amount?

19           MR. BLACKWOOD: This is David Blackwood.
20 I did indeed write a memo last year. I didn't bring 21 it with me. I didn't know that topic was coming up.
22 There are restrictions on what can be done as the 23 Commission collectively. I am going on my best
24 judgment, and, yes, there is a specific statute
25 relating to that.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1           The question that you raise, as an
2 independent agency, and, as you know, there is
3 question about to what degree -- well, I won't say to 4 what degree, but obviously we are an independent
5 agency, but under what status, we -- as a collective 6 body, what the agency can do in -- to oppose what OMB
7 is suggesting.

8           I think I pointed out last year practice
9 has been that in -- the Commission, as a body, has 10 ignored what OMB has required.

11           COMMISSIONER GAZIANO:       That's what I
12 thought.

13           MR. BLACKWOOD:   Now --

14           COMMISSIONER GAZIANO:   We have requested
15 higher amounts in the past.

16           MR. BLACKWOOD:   Yes, but that is practice.

17           The law, in my view, my recollection of what I said
18 last year, was that the OMB restrictions do cover the 19 agency as a collective whole. I also pointed out,
20 though, that Commissioners, as special government
21 employees, as individuals, are fully able to lobby on 22 the Hill or suggest a higher amount.

23           But as a collective body, I believe my 24 best recollection was -- and OMB's position is -- the 25 agency as a whole cannot challenge the passback.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1                   COMMISSIONER GAZIANO:     I disagree with
2                   that. My recollection is different, that there was no
3                   statute that prohibits us from asking for a higher
4                   amount, and our practice certainly bears that out. Do 5                   you remember what -- it is certainly not in our 6                   organic statute.

7                   MR. BLACKWOOD:     That is correct. It is 8                   not in our organic statute. If you want, I can go get 9                   the memo and give you a copy of it.

10                  COMMISSIONER GAZIANO:     Well, I would
11                  certainly appreciate that, because my recollection
12                  certainly isn't detailed. But the --

13                  COMMISSIONER YAKI:     This is Commissioner
14                  Yaki, if I can just add on to what Commissioner
15                  Gaziano is saying. I am still -- I am still unclear
16                  as to what you mean by the Commission as a body cannot 17                  ask for more. If there is no statutory prohibition
18                  against that, but merely practice, or an OMB "naughty 19                  naughty letter" from us, I don't understand why we 20                  would be constrained from saying -- adding an extra
21                  half mill into the budget that we submit to Congress.

22                  MR. BLACKWOOD:     Well, my point,
23                  Commissioner, is that there is a statute.
24                  Unfortunately, I am going on my recollection. I will 25                  be glad to go get the memo and report on it, if you

NEAL R. GROSS

1 give me about two or three minutes. But there is an
2 explicit statute, is my recollection, that would
3 prohibit federal agencies from challenging OMB.

4 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'd like to see the 5 memo.

6 MR. BLACKWOOD: I'll get it again.

7 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, thank you.

8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. At this point,
9 do we need an additional -- well, at this point I
10 would like to move to lift the moratorium on special
11 assistant hiring, to allow the hiring of three 12 additional special assistants, with the understanding
13 that if Commissioner Kirsanow wishes to hire a special
14 assistant during 2010 that the Staff Director shall 15 identify offsets in the budget that would allow an 16 additional hire.

17 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Well, why is the
18 motion, then, to lift the moratorium as to three? Why
19 isn't that to lift the moratorium?

20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Because we have
21 identified offsets for three, not four. Also,
22 Commissioner Kirsanow has indicated that he is not 23 going to hire a special assistant, in which case the 24 -- my reasoning is that it -- well, I don't see the 25 reason to create a budget line item for an item that

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 we are not going to make use of.

2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Well, there is the
3 fact that I am not willing to vote, as I told you, for 4 three. I think that sets a very bad precedent. I am
5 very much in favor of lifting the moratorium as to 6 everyone. And if Commissioner Kirsanow isn't
7 interested in hiring a special assistant at this 8 point, that is fine. But I don't want anything to 9 stand in his way from hiring that special assistant,
10 if he should decide to.

11 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: This is Kirsanow.
12 Commissioner Heriot, I appreciate that. I think this 13 is really a -- really not a difference in kind, but 14 matter of degree. I think that Commissioner -- Chair
15 Reynolds makes a very good point that it probably 16 doesn't serve us well to have a line item in there
17 that probably isn't going to be exercised.

18 By lifting this moratorium as to three,
19 with the understanding that it would be revisited, we 20 are simply -- it is almost virtually the same as 21 lifting the moratorium in its entirety. And I think 22 it just simply saves us the monies that would be
23 allocated in this particular year for another director
24 or another special assistant.

25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: This is Commissioner

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 Yaki. Commissioner Kirsanow is saying that if we lift
2 it for all, they will have to do the budget set-asides
3 for those positions regardless. Is that what you are 4 saying, Commissioner Kirsanow? And that is what we 5 don't want to have to do?

6 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: At this particular
7 time.

8 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Well, again, I am
9 not willing to vote for a motion that does not lift it
10 as to everyone. But I would be willing to vote for 11 one that lifts it as to everyone, but that stipulates
12 that Commissioner Kirsanow is not going to hire until 13 some later date in the budget year, so that it
14 wouldn't be necessary to adjust the budget for that.

15 But I don't want to walk away from here
16 and think that from now on we could have seven such 17 slots only, which I think is -- you know, sets a very,
18 very dangerous precedent.

19 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Kirsanow here.
20 Mr. Staff Director, if we were to lift the moratorium
21 as to all, with the understanding among ourselves,
22 whether it is tacit or explicit, that I am not going 23 to be hiring anybody, are we compelled to list that as 24 a line item in the budget?

25 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: No, I -- my

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 reading of it would be that the moratorium would just 2 lift any blocking situation, but we always -- there is 3 many times, in Congress and certainly with the 4 Commission, where we have the authority to fill
5 certain positions or to spend certain money.

6 But we make the judgment that we don't 7 have the appropriations at the current time, or we 8 have certain priorities at the current time, so we 9 don't fill all of those authorized positions. We have 10 many authorized positions now that are not filled,
11 because we just don't have the appropriations or we 12 have made priority decisions about what to fill.

13 So I don't think that the -- lifting the 14 moratorium completely would certainly not obligate us
15 to fund all of the positions at this point in time.
16 That would be a judgment for the Commission to make as 17 to whether or not it wanted to fund one, two, three,
18 or four additional positions.

19 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: This is 20 Commissioner -- Vice Chair Thernstrom. I don't really 21 understand this discussion, I'm sorry. We at the 22 moment have a -- don't have a full complement of 23 potential assistants. To lift it for three rather 24 than four doesn't really change the fact that it
25 continues the status quo, except we have increased the

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 number of Commissioners. I don't see the grand
2 principle here of, well, we can't -- it has to be four
3 or it's zero. I mean, we have been living with --

4 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Right now we have a
5 situation where in theory we are sharing, everyone
6 gets .5.

7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No, I'm sorry.
8 Commissioner Melendez and Commissioner Yaki are not
9 sharing. Commissioner Yaki does not have a special
10 assistant, period. And I just -- you know, I mean,
11 going the way the chair suggested continues, it seems 12 to me, the current situation, although it -- although 13 very nicely adding a few more Commissioners. I just 14 don't see the grand principle.

15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: It seems like we 16 are --

17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: This is Chairman
18 Reynolds. I agree with you, Vice Chair Thernstrom. I
19 believe that there is a principle involved, but I
20 don't give it as high a value as Commissioner Heriot.

21 But at the end of the day, under my proposal the only
22 Commissioner who would be affected in a practical way
23 would be Commissioner Kirsanow, and that is why I am
24 willing to defer to Commissioner Kirsanow on this,
25 because he is the one who would have the burden. No

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 other Commissioner, in a practical sense, would
2 shoulder a burden until this plan, except Commissioner
3 Kirsanow, so --

4 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Except if
5 Commissioner Kirsanow gets hit by a truck tomorrow and 6 replaced by a different Commissioner, that
7 Commissioner would not have made that agreement.

8 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: That's pretty
9 morbid.

10 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I hope you don't get
11 hit by a truck, Pete. Look both ways before you cross
12 the street for me.

13 COMMISSIONER YAKI: And we certainly hope
14 you don't fly to Buffalo.

15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: The principle --
16 this is Commissioner Gaziano. The principle is 17 important to me, too, but it sounds like we are very 18 close, so just modifying this to satisfy all of us.
19 So why don't we -- the motion reflect that we lift the 20 moratorium as to all Commissioners, who want to hire a
21 special assistant, and then with regard to the budget
22 issue we accept Commissioner Kirsanow's current
23 position that he is -- doesn't have any plans to hire
24 a separate special assistant in the next fiscal year,
25 so we don't need to make that a budget item. But

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 should he choose to do so --

2 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: This is Kirsanow.

3 I think that makes good sense. I don't see this as a
4 matter of giant principle, simply a matter of 5 accounting as far as I am concerned. And having been 6 assured by the Staff Director that we have got this 7 latitude, that we don't have to necessarily put that
8 in, because we have authorized all four, then I am
9 perfectly satisfied.

10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Commissioner Yaki
11 here. My only question for Commissioner Kirsanow is 12 that, depending on what may or may not happen with our 13 budget, maybe we should call this our stimulus budget,
14 if -- this is also for the chair -- if the language
15 were to say that we lifted the moratorium on hiring
16 special assistants, semi-colon, however, that for the 17 remainder of FY09, and into '10, funding shall be 18 available only for three additional. And if in the 19 future a fourth special assistant is required by 20 Commissioner Kirsanow, that budgetary authority --
21 budgetary authority be sought that, I mean, I would be 22 -- I think that is kind of the middle ground.

23 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: This is Vice Chair
24 Thernstrom. Well, that does not cover the contingency
25 of Commissioner Kirsanow being knocked off by one of

NEAL R. GROSS

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS

1 his enemies, so --

2 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I've got many.

3 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, Pete is a sweet,
4 dear man, and he doesn't have any enemies. But, Pete,
5 as I said earlier, I defer to you. Whether it is what
6 Commissioner Gaziano put on the table or Commissioner
7 Yaki, we are dancing on the head of a pin.

8 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes. I think that 9 there is shades of difference there. The idea is we 10 are lifting the moratorium. I am simply not going to 11 exercise my prerogative to fill that position at this 12 particular time, so let's just go forward and do it.
13 Let's lift the moratorium.

14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Okay. Then, why don't 15 we just -- this is Commissioner Yaki. Why don't we 16 just say this, "We are lifting the moratorium;
17 however, the Director is instructed not to budget for 18 a fourth special assistant until such time as directed
19 by Peter Kirsanow or his replacement."

20 (Laughter.)

21 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That works I think.

22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: That works.

23 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: That works. You
24 know, as long as Pete's right to hire is not 25 contingent on something that he doesn't control.

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, it would be --
2 at least the potential would be there, because we
3 would still have to look at the budget. I mean, we 4 can't spend what we don't have.

5 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Mr. Chairman, I
6 really would like to go back to your original motion.
7 It was perfectly good.

9 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No.

10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, let's --

11 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: And it was clear.
12 This thing is now a mess.

13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, Commissioner
14 Yaki, please repeat -- and, in fact, make a motion.
15 Whatever you just said, please say it again, but make 16 it a motion.

17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, it depends -- it
18 depends, Commissioner -- Chair Reynolds, if you want
19 me to add your last modification, because it would -- 20 the motion, with your modification, would read that,
21 "The moratorium for special assistants is now lifted;
22 however, that funding -- that funding and authority
23 for the fourth special assistant that would be within 24 the purview of the position occupied by Commissioner
25 Kirsanow would not be funded or allocated until

1 directed by Commissioner Kirsanow and/or his
2 replacement, and pending a budgetary adjustment that 3 would have -- that would be agreed upon by the
4 Commission."

5 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: See, that I won't go
6 for. I liked Yaki's motion before.

7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I just added the 8 Reynolds --

9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes, I know.

10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- clause.

11 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I know. I liked it
12 the first time.

13 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And I might even be 14 able to go with "and pending a budget adjustment," but 15 not requiring -- yes, the Staff Director probably 16 would need to adjust the budget, and we are only
17 talking about the hypothetical that Commissioner
18 Kirsanow changes his mind, which is unlikely. That it
19 require a subsequent vote of the Commission to give 20 Commissioner Kirsanow his wish is the problem.

21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Well, we can
22 lump that piece off.

23 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. Good.

24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But the trigger rests
25 on whether we find sufficient offsets.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1                   COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Well, we can't have
2 that just for that position. You know, we have to 3 commit now to find those offsets, whatever they are.

4                   COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: The Staff Director
5 would find those offsets. It might take -- I don't 6 know what it would take. And it is very hypothetical,
7 since --

8                   COMMISSIONER YAKI: This is Commissioner
9 Yaki. The whole reason why I stuck myself in the 10 position of having no special assistants for as long
11 as we have is because at the time that we enacted this 12 -- enacted this the suggested offsets were untenable
13 and unacceptable to the -- actually, to a unanimous
14 commission.

15                   This was when we were in a deep budgetary 16 hole, and we made a conscious decision to do this, and 17 it was something that I suggested, along with the 18 chair, in order to accommodate that. I -- you know,
19 hopefully we will not have to revisit those bad times,
20 but, as I understand it, the chair has worked very 21 diligently with the Staff Director to find non-
22 objectionable offsets, which I still want to hear
23 about, for the three positions that we are hiring now,
24 but that the fourth could be a -- could be -- and I
25 can't speak for the chair -- could be a tipping point

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 in terms of -- in terms of offset that some members of
2 the Commission would not want to -- would not want to 3 sacrifice.

4 So I believe that, you know, either we go
5 back to the original motion of the chair or we go to 6 the Yaki/Reynolds motion, which would at least give
7 the purview to the Staff Director, provided --
8 provided he or she finds the requisite offsets. It
9 may not require Board approval, but certainly if the 10 Director is charged with finding -- finding offsets,
11 then the Board will have some oversight on that 12 particular matter.

13 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Pete, as far as I am
14 concerned, it is your call.

15 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: You know, I am
16 perfectly satisfied with the Yaki/Reynolds
17 formulation, or the Yaki formation with some mention
18 of the above.

19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No, no, just pick on.

20 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: I'll go with the 21 Yaki formulation.

22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Commissioner
23 Yaki, please make a motion, just the Yaki motion sans
24 the Reynolds addition.

25 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Okay. I move that the

NEAL R. GROSS

1 moratorium on special assistants be lifted; however,
2 that funding shall only be made available for three
3 special assistants, and that funding for the fourth
4 special assistant (assigned -- who would be assigned
5 to Commissioner Kirsanow) shall not be funding --
6 funded or budget allocated until such time as 7 Commissioner Kirsanow (and/or his or her
8 replacement) --

9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: His.

10 (Laughter.)

11 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: It is not a his or 12 her.

13 (Laughter.)

14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: And his replacement --
15 well, you know, Peter, we really haven't -- you know,
16 never mind. So with that modification, seek such a
17 special assistant through request to the -- by request
18 to the Staff Director. Is that it?

19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I second.

20 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Well, I need to hear
21 it read back again. Can the Court Reporter read back?

22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Can the Court Reporter
23 read it back? I am --

24 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I don't know that
25 the Court Reporter has a microphone.

10                   CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Gail, are you

12                   COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'm comfortable.

13                   CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I second the motion.
14 Do we need additional discussion?

15                   COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Call the question.

16                   CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom,

18                   VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I vote yes.

3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Pass. No, I vote yes.

4 (Laughter.)

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Motion passes
6 unanimately. Okay.

7 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman, we
8 have in the hearing room been handed David Blackwood's
9 memo of last year, and a separate memorandum to Ken
10 Marcus, I assume some time before that. Have you all 11 received those via e-mail?

12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No.

13 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: No.

14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Oh, okay. Well, I
15 made -- I am not sure -- that may be helpful. I don't 16 -- I don't read it quite the same way the General
17 Counsel does. I see there is a statute cited that the 18 President "shall prepare budgets of the United States 19 Government." And, of course, that includes the 20 legislative budget or could include the legislative
21 budget. But, clearly, Congress doesn't have to follow
22 the President's recommendation on its own budget. I
23 don't see that statute as directly bearing on the 24 question.

25 I do see a lot of OMB Circulars cited and

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 interpretations based on OMB Circulars. And I don't 2 find the OMB Circulars compelling authority for the 3 practice of the Commission asking more than OMB has.

4 By the way, I find it a very good practice
5 to get OMB's advice on these things. I think it is a
6 sound practice that we may go through the OMB process.

7 But I do not find any of that convincing as to our 8 statutory authority to request the amount that we 9 request from Congress, especially since half of us
10 were appointed from Congress.

11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano,
12 is that a separate issue? Are you dissatisfied with 13 the budget that we have on the table?

14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I am somewhat
15 dissatisfied. We did ask for 12.4. By the way, I
16 don't remember that we were -- in the future, I think
17 we should be asked -- and maybe I missed it, so I
18 apologize if I did -- what our request is, but the 19 12.4 figure -- if you don't mind, I would like the 20 Staff Director to elaborate why -- what the basis of 21 12.4 is. I can guess that that would fill a lot of 22 our vacant positions. Why did we take the position
23 that 12.4 was the appropriate amount?

24 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Well, as you
25 said, it would fill many positions that have been

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 vacant. And if we had a perfect world, we would want
2 to fill those positions. And so that is what we
3 requested, but now we have to live within the amount
4 that we, you know, have got -- received through the 5 passback.

6 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I disagree with
7 that last point. But did you make an assessment as to 8 which positions we could fill and what activities we 9 could undertake with $12.4 million?

10 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Yes, we did.
11 At the time we prepared that budget and presented it,
12 we did make that kind of assessment.

13 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And --

14 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: We checked
15 with all of the directors of the different offices,
16 with the people in the regions, and then made our own
17 assessment, and then consulted with the Commissioners
18 as we put that forward for the Commission vote
19 previously.

20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And just to clarify
21 for me, because --

22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: That included the 23 civil rights cruise, right?

24 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: That was not
25 in there.

1 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Because maybe I
2 forgot, did we vote on this 12.4 figure?

3 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Yes.

4 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. I must have
5 -- when was that? Was that last September?

6 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: September it
7 was, yes. Yes, it was signed I believe September 5th
8 or 6th.

9 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. And just 10 based on your review, would that have filled -- would 11 that be sufficient to fill all our vacancies or most 12 of our vacancies?

13 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: It would
14 have filled most of our vacancies. I don't believe we 15 -- for instance, we had -- we have -- well, not all of 16 the authorized vacancies, but about -- I think it was 17 about 16 positions. We have, for instance, a Public
18 Affairs person and a Congressional Affairs person --

20 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: --
21 authorized within the Office of the Staff Director.
22 We were proposing to fill that with one person. The 23 one person would handle both duties. So -- but we did
24 not seek to fill every position.

25 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes. A lot of this

NEAL R. GROSS

1 is coming back to me now, and those seem like critical
2 positions to me. I just couldn't remember whether it
3 was all of the vacancies or just the critical
4 vacancies. I tend to think, Mr. Chairman, that 9.4 is 5 better than 8.4 or 8.8, but not quite what we should 6 really be asking Congress. And I would just like to 7 hear other people's opinion on that.

8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, I don't think
9 that there is -- that you will find any disagreement
10 that -- that we would rather have our ask as opposed
11 to the passback number. But looking at the amount of 12 time that we have left, and also looking at the fact
13 that the decision to deviate from OMB's
14 recommendation, I think that that requires a separate 15 conversation. I don't think anyone came to this 16 meeting prepared to have that conversation.

17 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: This is 18 Commissioner Melendez. I have a question. If we 19 submitted a higher number to Congress, and spending
20 doesn't occur until October of this year, do we have 21 time to readjust the budget at that point before
22 October 1st?

23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I believe the answer
24 is no. But, Marty, David, anyone, correct me if I am
25 wrong. I believe that, assuming we hand the budget in

NEAL R. GROSS

1 on Monday, then essentially it is out of our hands.

2 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Well, what
3 we hand in is our -- what we are saying -- this is our 4 intention of how we expect to spend this money. There
5 may be changes in terms of needs that occur, and there
6 may be more money that gets freed up. There could be
7 attrition that would occur among the staff. There
8 could be other types of changes that could occur, and 9 that would then free up money to be spent in other
10 areas that are not now contemplated.

11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I thought that 12 Commissioner Melendez was asking whether we would have 13 another opportunity to increase our ask.

14 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Oh, I'm 15 sorry.

16 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: No. What I was
17 asking was let's say we sent in a higher figure,
18 12 million or whatever it is, have we tried that? You
19 know, something different than just going back to the 20 passback every time? And what would be the 21 consequences of doing that? Would they tell us at 22 some point before October 1st of this year, would 23 start spending for 2010, that we could readjust and go
24 back to where we are now as far as this budget that 25 you would present today?

1           STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Well, if we
2 had appealed, and the appeal had not been determined
3 before we had to submit the budget, I -- I assume that 4 if we were to win our appeal then perhaps they would 5 give us authority to increase. But --

6           COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: By the way, if I
7 had been asked whether we should appeal, I am not sure
8 I would have agreed we should appeal to OMB. I would 9 have said let's just skip that, and let's just vote
10 the amount that we want OMB to send to Congress.

11           I don't think we should be bound by an 12 appeal. Maybe it would be fine to go through it, if 13 time permitted. Maybe some people would think that 14 it's a wise practice. But I'm not sure that the 15 appeal is a good thing anyway. It suggests that we 16 are bound.

17           STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Well, let -- 18 the General Counsel pointed out a passage in his 19 May 28, 2008, memo in which it says that, "To ensure 20 consistency within the government, OMB is required to 21 'establish government-wide financial management
22 policies for executive agencies' in any sites."
23 31 U.S. Code, Section 503.

24           COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: We are not an
25 executive agency.

1 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Are we an executive
2 agency?

3 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: We are not an
4 executive agency.

5 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Then, he
6 goes on to point out that the Commission has
7 recognized this power by adopting AI 1-1,
8 Section 1.02. So we would conceivably need to amend
9 our AI to change that policy.

10 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: The AI that he
11 cites is somewhat vague to me. It may be inconsistent
12 with my understanding, but I am not even sure. The AI
13 is -- the Commission is governed by -- in its 14 administrative functions by specific legislation.
15 Again, I don't think this is specific --

16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, Todd, I mean,
17 again, we were not prepared to have this conversation.
18 You have the memo in front of you. The rest of us
19 don't. We have a deadline in front of us. Yes, it
20 would be better if we had more money, but it seems to 21 me that the issue that you have put on the table is -- 22 I don't think that we can get our arms around that 23 particular issue during this meeting.

24 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Well, I regret that 25 -- I assumed we were prepared or we should have been

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

1 better prepared for it, since we had this discussion
2 last April and last May. I am just trying to raise
3 these principles, if -- if -- and I will -- you know,
4 I will perhaps offer a motion that we increase the 5 amount.

6 And if it -- after raising this issue, if
7 the majority of Commissioners, for whatever reason,
8 legally or otherwise, don't want to vote for that 9 higher amount, that's fine. But I at least wanted to 10 state for the record that we have that authority, and 11 do appreciate hearing from some other Commissioners
12 that they seem to agree.

13 Commissioner Yaki, do you agree with that 14 statutory interpretation I am offering?

15 COMMISSIONER YAKI: This is Commissioner
16 Yaki. I agree with the interpretation by Commissioner
17 Gaziano. I think that we have perhaps a more salutary
18 environment in which to push it than we did before.
19 But I also understand from the chair that we have an 20 obligation or a deadline to get this thing out the 21 door, regardless.

22 As much as I have been the one screaming
23 about the fact that -- over the years that we could 24 ask for more money, and have lost every time, I think 25 -- I always try to raise it early enough in the

COURT REPORTERS AND TRANSCRIBERS

1 process, so we can identify what that money would go
2 for. So I am a little hesitant, you know, in terms of 3 supporting a motion now by Commissioner Gaziano. But 4 certainly in principle I support what he is saying.

5 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. That -- and
6 maybe it will -- maybe we should reserve this for a
7 fuller discussion at a later time if -- I won't offer
8 such a motion if it -- if it appears that a majority
9 of the Commission, for whatever reason, isn't willing 10 to ask for a higher amount. But certainly this was 11 the appropriate time to raise it, since I thought we 12 had raised it before.

13 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I guess I have just 14 one question here. I mean, in principle, I think that 15 Todd is probably right that, you know, we are not 16 bound by OMB. My question -- and this is for anybody
17 who has any insight on this -- is if we were to ask 18 for more, is that likely to be, you know, received in 19 Congress in some positive way? Or is it just going to 20 be viewed as not playing -- not playing the game
21 properly and perhaps even working to our detriment?

22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Looking at the
23 reaction to past decisions to ignore the OMB number, I
24 think that it would be viewed as -- well, I don't 25 think it would be viewed favorably by OMB or some

NEAL R. GROSS

1 folks from Congress.

2 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: During that history
3 where we were asking for more than OMB had authorized,
4 did we ever get more than OMB had authorized?

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I can't say for 6 certain. I believe the answer is no. Our budget has 7 essentially been flat for about a decade.

8 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: This is the 9 Staff Director. The Director of the Office of 10 Management has indicated that the answer to that 11 question is no, that whenever there was a request for 12 more funds it was not granted, and she has some 13 institutional memory in that area.

14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: That may be.
15 Again, I don't think I am inclined to make a motion.
16 It may have actually helped us -- the Commission
17 receive the amount that was requested and the amount
18 requested not be cut.

19 So it is -- it is an interesting question,
20 and I am glad that Commissioner Heriot raised it,
21 because, quite frankly, I had that same thought in my 22 own mind. But if there isn't a majority interested in 23 asking for other reason, I will suggest we end the 24 discussion and vote on the amount that the rest of the 25 Commission seems willing to ask for.

1 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. On that note, I
2 guess the first motion I would like to make on this
3 topic, I move to amend the budget and the accompanying 4 documentation to reflect the changes recommended by 5 the Staff Director. Is there a second?

6 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Kirsanow. Second.

7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Seconded. Vice
8 Chair Thernstrom.

9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Discussion?

10 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: This is Commission
11 Melendez. I still, you know, have some concerns.
12 Although I support the special assistants to all of 13 the Commissioners, you know, the issue on -- there is 14 a lot of issues that I still have. I know that I had 15 prioritized the Human Resource Director, and I know
16 that we are, you know, still with that one.

17 It ties into the capital plan I think for 18 the overall Commission. And I don't know -- I know
19 that one of our mandates is to do a certain amount of 20 public announcements. Sounds like we're kind of 21 cutting that down. I am not sure whether -- and that 22 is -- I think that is a mandate we are supposed to do.

23 It also -- you know, the indepth
24 discussion, you know, on this total budget I don't
25 think has been adequate. The issue on the conference

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 we are supposed to have -- and this is pertaining to 2 the past budget of -- you know, the current budget as
3 to the questions I had asked the Staff Director about
4 where do we stand with current budget, you know,
5 hasn't been totally responded -- didn't get a lot of 6 response back on many of my questions.

7 And so I have a real concern, because I
8 know that we have this conference coming up. I have 9 no information on whether or not that is still 10 feasible to even do it, based on the current budget.
11 So I just -- you know, the whole budget process as far
12 as kind of monitoring that as we go along doesn't --
13 so I am not satisfied with it, and --

14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez,
15 I share your concerns. And, in fact, I have -- I will 16 make -- I will commit to you that those questions that 17 have been pending for several months, that you will 18 get a response one way or the other before the next
19 meeting.

20 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Okay. And then,
21 just -- you know, I know that we have -- you know,
22 within what we are submitting to Congress, you know,
23 it says that we still have only chartered half of the 24 SACs. And, as you know, I have been always a 25 supporter of trying to get more funding to go to the

NEAL R. GROSS

2 out west, and we still --

3 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Melendez?

4 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: -- are proposing
5 to hire assistants in some of the other regions. So I
6 am not totally -- as far as the priorities, I am not
7 really totally satisfied with this budget. So I am
8 just letting you know that.

9 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Thank you. Any 10 other comments?

11 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I guess I would have 12 to add I am not entirely satisfied with the budget
13 either.

14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Vice Chair
15 Thernstrom, how do you vote?

16 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I vote yes. I'm
17 sorry. I had it -- had the phone a little ways away

6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I vote in
7 favor. Commissioner Yaki?

8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Point of question for 9 the Parliamentarian. How many votes does this need to 10 pass?

11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Majority.

12 MS. MONROIG: And there are seven
13 Commissioners.

14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: But the majority of 15 those voting? Does that include abstentions?

16 MS. MONROIG: So four votes, and there are 17 already four votes in favor.

18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Okay. Then, abstain.

19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. So the motion
20 passes.

21 Next item. Okay. The next item is the -- 22 and we were just voting to amend the paperwork to

5 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay.

6 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I move to amend the 7 budget and the accompanying documentation to reflect
8 the changes recommended by the Staff Director.

9 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Oh, yes. I vote
10 yes on that. It's the amount that I may vote no on.

11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez,
12 would you like to change your vote? Commissioner
13 Melendez? Commissioner Yaki?

14 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Are we changing our

16 (Laughter.)

17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, just to ensure 18 that you did not -- well, do you want to change your 19 vote, in light of the fact that we are not voting on 20 the budget right now?

22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. All right.
23 Now, I move that the Commission approve the submission

9 VI. PROGRAM PLANNING

10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Next up we have 11 SAC rechartering. Bear with me. Oh, no, actually
12 there is a letter dated February 5th that was received
13 by the Staff Director from officials at English First 14 and ProEnglish. They are requesting that the 15 Commission reopen for 90 days the comment period on 16 the briefing on specifying English as the common
17 language of the workplace, every employer's right or 18 violation of federal law.

19 The briefing was held on December 12,
20 2008, and pursuant to Commission policy had a comment
21 period of 30 days. Thus, the term to comment expired
22 on January 11, 2009. Is there a second?

23 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I second.

2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.

3 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I think he is 4 moving.

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.

6 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: You said there had
7 been a request. Nobody from whatever they are called
8 -- the English First, or whatever they are called, you
9 did not make a motion that I heard.

10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Well, I move
11 that we extend the period for 30 days, the comment
12 period.

13 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: 30 days or 90 days?
14 I thought they asked for 90.

15 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: But the 16 Chairman is proposing 30.

17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. They did.

18 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I mean, is there any 19 point to extending it for 30 days if they need 90 to 20 do what they want to do?

21 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Oh, okay. I move that 22 we extend it for 90 days. Is there a second?

23 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Second.

24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Discussion.
25 Here are my views. I think 90 days is too long. I

NEAL R. GROSS

1 also think that opening the comment period, because we
2 received a letter from an organization, is a precedent
3 that I don't particularly like. However, we also
4 received a request from Capitol Hill, from a
5 Congressman, to extend the comment period. On that 6 basis --

7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Which member?

8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I believe it was Peter
9 King.

10 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Oh.

11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: On that basis, I would
12 support the motion. But for the requests from Capitol
13 Hill, I would not under these circumstances.

14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Chairman, if it
15 is all right, the letter from the member of Congress,
16 was it so that the member of Congress could submit
17 something, or was it so that we could receive comments
18 from other organizations as well? Do you remember, or 19 do you have that letter handy?

20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: It wasn't a letter.
21 It was a phone call.

22 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay.

23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And the idea was to 24 essentially provide the time for the organizations
25 that I mentioned.

1                   COMMISSIONER YAKI: Let me ask you this.
2 Was the bill -- was the phone call from his staff or
3 from the Congressman?

4                   CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Staff.

5                   COMMISSIONER YAKI: I would just note that 6 I have -- I know Congressman King and his legislative 7 agenda. I would say that we have had requests in the 8 past from members of the Judiciary Committee on items
9 not related to the opening of a record. You know, as 10 much as -- as much as I agree with the chair's
11 reservations about this, and I certainly think that 90
12 days is extraordinarily long for an organization that 13 probably has testimony pretty much on print, on their 14 print button, and I strongly object to the 90 days.

15                  COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Mr. Chair, I would 16 suggest that maybe we shorten it to at least 60 days,
17 at most 60 days. I think that is more than sufficient
18 time, provided that we communicate that very quickly 19 to those interested parties who have expressed an 20 interest in submitting something. And I believe it
21 was Representative Steven King, not Peter King.

22                  CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Thank you.

23                  VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Mr. Chairman, this
24 is Vice Chair Thernstrom. Why do they need the extra
25 time? I mean, we have had this record open. I think

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 it does set a terrible precedent. We have got a
2 backlog of overdue late reports, and now we are just
3 slowing the process of the Commission up once again.
4 You know, why couldn't they get whatever they have to 5 say to us in a timely fashion.

6 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Staff Director?

7 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Same reason we can't
8 do anything in a timely fashion.

9 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Mr. Staff Director,
10 let me go back to your comment on -- where is this -- 11 this report isn't ready to be sent to us anyway, is 12 it?

13 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: No, it's 14 not.

15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. At what
16 stage -- do you remember at what stage this report is?

17 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: This is one
18 where the staff has gone back to the panelists to ask
19 them to review the transcripts, and they are pulling 20 information together. It has not been written. The 21 people involved in this have been pretty involved with 22 moving the statutory report forward, so it is 23 something that they would begin to work on in a couple
24 of months.

25 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Okay. Good, good.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 Well, that affects my thought. I share some of the 2 concerns about how long we keep it open, but keeping
3 it open for some short length of time, however we
4 define that, but will not keep it from -- the staff
5 from doing most of its work or keep it from being sent 6 to us.

7 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: No, I don't
8 believe so.

9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: By the way, on the 10 notion of they just need to push a button, evidently 11 it says in the letter here, "Cancer struck swiftly for 12 an important leader for English language issues -- Jim 13 Boulet of English First, who entered the hospital and 14 died during the period." English First is a very tiny
15 organization, and evidently one of their leaders died
16 during the period directly after our briefing. And 17 that is what has slowed them down. These things do
18 happen.

19 It seems to me that it is extraordinary
20 for us to open our record for 90 days on behalf of an 21 organization that was aware of the briefing. But when 22 a member of Congress requests us to do so, I think we 23 should simply do it. We have been much later on 24 things than 90 days.

25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Hello, folks. I'm

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 sorry, I was disconnected. I'm just rejoining you.

2 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I have a point of
3 information. Are we going to notify any group that
4 has previously testified that -- or submitted
5 testimony that the period -- if this were to prevail,
6 that the period has been extended, and that they have 7 an opportunity to supplement or replace their 8 testimony as a result?

9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I've got no problem
10 with that. And we could put a notice in the Federal 11 Register as well.

12 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Sure. I think that 13 is a good idea if we are going to extend the period at 14 all.

15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay, folks. I had 16 been disconnected.

17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, we've known that 18 for a long time.

19 (Laughter.)

20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Have we had 21 discussion around the length of time, in terms of the 22 postponement?

23 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Gerry, I don't know
24 if you were there when I -- I read from the letter
25 here. The reason they want an extension is that one

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 of their leaders got cancer and died during the 2 period. And, of course, English First is a tiny
3 organization, and if one of their leaders has -- has 4 entered the hospital and died during the period, you
5 know, you can see why this would throw them off their 6 game.

7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: But I'm not sure that
8 justifies 90 days.

9 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I think
10 Commissioner Kirsanow suggested 60 is --

11 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes. I would move
12 that we open up the record to accommodate further
13 submissions for a period of 60 days from today's date.

14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And I don't know if
15 you were on the call, Mr. Chairman, but the Staff
16 Director indicated that it is due to a lot of other
17 work. The staff is still in the sort of early phases, 18 so that that wouldn't significantly -- while the 19 record is being held open, wouldn't significantly
20 delay the report getting to us, because a lot of other
21 work still needs to be done on it.

22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Well, then, I
23 second Peter's motion. Do we want to vote at this 24 point?

25 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes. We probably

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 should have done that as a motion to substitute, but
2 let's just do it.

3 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Just one point of 4 clarification. The request from the Congressional 5 Office, was it for any specific period of time? Or 6 that we just generally consider a sufficient time? Do
7 you remember?

8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: No, I don't.

9 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Gerry, for the 10 record, could you withdraw your first motion, so that 11 we are least doing something generally in order here?

12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Motion withdrawn.

13 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Now we can vote on 14 Pete's motion.

15 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom?

16 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Yes.

17 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano?

19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Kirsanow?

23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: I'm sorry?

25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez?

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: No.

2 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki?

3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: No. And let the
4 record reflect I wanted a much shorter period of time.

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. I vote for it,
6 with the -- with reservations.

7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Well, if it's 8 going to pass, I'm going to change my note to no as 9 well, because I really don't agree with the 60 days.

10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.

11 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Did you all hear me,
12 that this leader had cancer and died?

13 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Look, 60 days -- I
14 appreciate that, and now I understand the legitimacy
15 of the request. But 60 days shouldn't be necessary.

16 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I wish good health
17 to all of us.

18 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Pardon me?

19 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I wish good health
20 to all of us.

21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Look, I mean --

22 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: We voted. You folks
23 can discuss that offline if you wish.

24 VII. STATE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ISSUES

25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Next item up is a

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 motion that the Commission recharter the Oklahoma
2 State Advisory Committee. Under this motion, the 3 Commission appoints the following individuals to that
4 Committee based on the recommendations of the Staff
5 Director. Andrew Lester, Currie Ballard, Michael 6 Barlow, James Bryant, Cara Watts, Anthony Douglas,
7 Brandon Dutcher, Hannibal Johnson, Karen Langdon,
8 David Lee, Mark Liotta, Kay Martin, and Michael 9 Scaperlanda.

10 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Mr. Chairman,
11 before we do that, I want to make sure that the Court
12 Reporter has it accurate that I have changed the last 13 vote in opposition to the length of the time.

14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Please have the Court
15 Reporter confirm that he has made the -- that he has 16 made the change, or that he has --

17 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: He has
18 indicated that he did make the change.

19 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Okay.

20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Very good.

21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Thank you very
22 much. We can go ahead.

23 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: The Commission also 24 appoints Andrew Lester as Chair of the newly 25 rechartered Oklahoma State Advisory Committee. The

1 members will serve as uncompensated government
2 employees. Under this motion, the Commission
3 authorizes the Staff Director to execute the
4 appropriate paperwork for the appointment. Is there a
5 second?

6 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Kirsanow. Second.

7 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion?

8 COMMISSIONER YAKI: This is Commissioner
9 Yaki. I just want to raise the point and the 10 objection that we -- as much lip service as was paid
11 to the need for "balance" from previous acts, that in 12 this particular SAC we have three members who are part 13 of the same think-tank. Two of them are part of the 14 same non-profits. There is substantial overlap
15 amongst many of them. It hardly seems like there was 16 any balance put on this fact, and I will be voting
17 against it.

18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Mr. Staff
19 Director, two questions. First, please confirm that 20 Mr. Yaki's -- Commissioner Yaki's statements are -- 21 let me know if they are accurate. But, more
22 importantly, let me know if you believe that overall
23 we have a balanced SAC that reflects a diversity of 24 viewpoints.

25 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Commissioner

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 Melendez here. I want -- the balance between gender,
2 women, could you comment as to how that is balanced
3 here? And also, I know that we have enough lawyers on 4 the SAC.

5 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: Okay. I
6 believe there is overall balance. The main objective
7 of the balance is to -- under our administrative 8 instruction is to ensure full and vigorous debate. We 9 do not have quotas based on gender, race, and other
10 categories of that nature, so we just do look for a
11 balanced group of people who can provide vigorous 12 debate on the issues that the Advisory Committee would 13 address.

14 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: A question. I
15 thought we were considering trying to get more women.
16 And there is only three on this, my understanding,
17 out of 13, is that right?

18 STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER: That's 19 correct.

20 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Mr. Staff Director,
21 please describe the outreach that took place that 22 resulted in these recommendations.

23 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, before he
24 addresses that, I mean, whatever the outreach was, why
25 is it that we have three people who all belong to the

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 same think-tank on the SAC? Lester Dutcher and 2 Scaperlanda all belong to the Oklahoma Council of 3 Public Affairs.

4 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: And why is that
5 necessarily a bad thing.

6 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, when you are
7 talking about -- when you are talking about three out
8 of 13, that hardly seems it would be -- hardly seems 9 it would be any sort of representative balance on 10 anything. I am not talking about party affiliations.

11 I am not talking about the social clubs. I am
12 talking about their professional capacities in a
13 specific -- one specific organization. So, yes, I
14 would have a problem with that --

15 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Are you saying
16 their views on --

17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: -- Commissioner
18 Gaziano. I would have a problem with the fact that 19 two of them also happen to be members of the Oklahoma
20 Branch of the National Association of Scholars.

21 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: But are you
22 suggesting that --

23 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Certainly, we can do
24 better than picking three people from the same
25 organization. And I would say that whether it was the

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 NAACP, MALDEF, or The Federalist Society.

2 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I am just asking
3 you whether you assume that their views on civil 4 rights issues are all going to be identical, because 5 they have the same -- one of the same affiliations.
6 Is that your view?

7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I am not going to
8 answer the question whether I -- I don't know who each 9 of --

10 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: I think that is a
11 ridiculous --

12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: I do know, however,
13 that if we are picking three people from the same
14 organization out of 13, we can certainly do a better
15 job than that.

16 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: So if three of them
17 happen to be --

18 COMMISSIONER YAKI: That is my point,
19 Commissioner Gaziano.

20 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: If three of them
21 happen to be --

22 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Then, you know, it is 23 not worth talking about it.

24 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki,
25 overall, it appears we have a diversity of viewpoints.

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 If our outreach was -- if it found --

2 COMMISSIONER YAKI: What is the definition
3 of "diversity of viewpoints"?

4 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: -- then I am -- I am
5 satisfied that we have a good -- we have a good list
6 here.

7 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Well, of course you
8 are satisfied. The diversity is all from your side of 9 -- your side. So fine. I just told you, I just 10 wanted to raise the point, and that I am going to be 11 voting against it.

12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Understood.

13 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Move on.

14 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Well, for the 15 record, I certainly think that one of the members of 16 the -- one of the affiliations of three of the members
17 is not -- does not represent their views and their 18 lifetime knowledge of the area, and that that 19 assumption certainly doesn't -- isn't very persuasive
20 to me.

21 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Remember that the
22 Oklahoma Association of Scholars is -- these people
23 don't work for that organization. They just happen to 24 be members. You know, we have two people who are 25 members of the Roman Catholic Church as well. You

NEAL R. GROSS

1323 RHODE ISLAND AVE., N.W.

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 know, it is one of many, many, many groups that they
2 probably belong to.

3           You know, I could see being more concerned
4 about there being several people, you know, from -- 5 who all work for the same employer, but that's not the 6 case here. It's not even close to the case. My guess
7 is that if we were to examine these people more
8 closely, you will find indeed that, you know, three of 9 them are members of lots of different organizations.
10 There are probably three Presbyterians in there
11 somewhere.

12           COMMISSIONER YAKI: What is the Oklahoma
13 Council of Public Affairs? I know what it is. Would 14 you like to tell me what you think it is?

15           CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well, what is the 16 point?

17           COMMISSIONER YAKI: Then, don't give me
18 this diversity boohoo. This is not diversity.

19           CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Well --

20           COMMISSIONER YAKI: Three out of 13
21 belonging to the same thing, five of the people all
22 overlap with one another in various settings. I
23 didn't know Oklahoma was that small a state, but I
24 guess it is.

25           CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Folks, this is

NEAL R. GROSS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20005-3701

1 a debate that has been ongoing for quite some time. I
2 am sure we will --

3 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Let's just vote.
4 Let's move on.

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Very good. Vice Chair
6 Thernstrom, how do you vote?

7 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Abstaining on it.

8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Gaziano?

9 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes.

10 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Kirsanow?

11 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Yes.

12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot?

13 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Yes.

14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Melendez?

15 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Abstain.

16 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Yaki?

17 COMMISSIONER YAKI: N-O.

18 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: And I vote in the
19 affirmative. Okay. The motion passes.

20 Next up, I move that the Commission
21 recharter the Mississippi State Advisory Committee.
22 Under this motion, the Commission appoints the 23 following individuals to that Committee based on the 24 Staff Director's recommendation. Bradley Clanton,
25 Victoria Cintra, John Czarnetsky, Goyo de la Cruz,

NEAL R. GROSS

2 Walter Scott, Forest Thigpen, Leroy Walker, William --
3 and William Woods.

4 The Commission also reappoints Mr. Clanton
5 as Chair of the rechartered Mississippi State Advisory
6 Committee. These members serve as uncompensated
7 government employees. Under this motion, the 8 Commission authorizes the Staff Director to execute
9 the appropriate paperwork for the appointment. Is 10 there a second?

11 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: Second.

12 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Discussion?

13 COMMISSIONER YAKI: This is Commissioner
14 Yaki. I just wanted to note for the record that of 15 the two SACs that we are appointing today only five 16 out of 24 are women. And I will just note that 17 without drawing any inferences on diversity or 18 outreach. And let's vote.

19 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Vice Chair Thernstrom,
20 how do you vote?

21 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I vote yes on 22 this.

24 COMMISSIONER GAZIANO: Yes.

25 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Kirsanow?

3 each of the biographies.

4                   CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS:   Commissioner Heriot?

5                   COMMISSIONER HERIOT:   Yes.

6                   CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS:   Commissioner Melendez?

7                   COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ:   No.

8                   CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS:   Commissioner Yaki?

9                   COMMISSIONER YAKI:   Ditto.

10                  CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS:   I vote in the 11 affirmative.  The motion carries.

12                  I move to adjourn.  Is there a second?

13                  COMMISSIONER GAZIANO:   Could I -- Mr.
14 Chairman, I did -- I don't know if we inadvertently
15 skipped the --

16                  COMMISSIONER YAKI:   I second.  Call the 17 question.

18                  VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM:   Second.

19                  COMMISSIONER GAZIANO:   -- the Staff
20 Director's Report.  I -- he may have had some items,
21 and I just wanted to -- to actually commend him for 22 something in the report.  Did we skip that item in the 23 agenda?

24                  STAFF DIRECTOR DANNENFELSER:   We did.

25                  CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS:   I'm sorry.  Please

4 wanted to hear his report and actually commend him.

5 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay.

6 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: I'd like to call
7 the question and adjourn.

8 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. All in favor,
9 please say aye.

10 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: No. We skipped an 11 item on the agenda.

12 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Aye.

13 VICE CHAIR THERNSTROM: Aye.

14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Okay. Let's vote to

11 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Kirsanow?

12 COMMISSIONER KIRSANOW: Given Commissioner

14 CHAIRMAN REYNOLDS: Commissioner Heriot?

15 COMMISSIONER HERIOT: I'll vote no on the

19 COMMISSIONER MELENDEZ: Abstain.

21 COMMISSIONER YAKI: Yes.
